PR Docket No. 92-235

TO: The Commission

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The American Automobile Association, Inc. (AAA), by its attorneys and pursuant to Section 1.46 of the Commission's Rules, hereby requests an extension until August 16, 1993 of the Reply Comment period for the captioned proceeding. In support of its request, the following is shown.

The Commission has proposed sweeping changes to the rules governing radio operations employed by the auto clubs that are members of AAA. If implemented, certain of the proposed rules would impact the extent of emergency roadside assistance provided by AAA member clubs, as well as methods used. Thus, the captioned rulemaking proceeding is of unusual importance to AAA. Based upon the tone and content of Comments reviewed so far, other Private Land Mobile Radio Service (PLMRS) licensees would be similarly impacted.

No. of Copies 241

The captioned rulemaking also is unusual in that it presents a broad range of technical, policy and legal issues, affecting disparate PLMRS licensees. Finally, the proceeding has attracted voluminous comments on this broad range of issues.

The AAA respectfully submits that it would further the public interest to allow full ventilation of considerations raised by the rulemaking proceeding. The extra time requested would allow the AAA, its member clubs, and other private radio licensees and users to more completely review the dozens of comments submitted, and prepare appropriate reply comments. The brief extension requested will not prejudice other parties to the proceeding.

The Commission and its Bureaus have previously extended a comment cycle where the volume and technical complexity of the matter under consideration warranted. See In re Dial Page, L.P.,

WHEREFORE, the American Automobile Association respectfully requests that the Reply Comment period in Private Radio Docket 92-235 be extended to August 16, 1993.

Respectfully submitted,

THE AMERICAN AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION
